1. The competition is open to both Eckerd students and alumni.
2. Films should be no more than 5 minutes in length.
3. Films should be submitted with an entry form to the Office of Campus Activities by Thursday, February 28, 2013 and should be submitted in three copies on three separate DVDs.
4. Alumni entries must have been produced subsequent to the filmmaker's graduation from Eckerd College.
5. Films must not include copyrighted music or imagery.
6. There is no entry fee.

The films will be judged by a committee comprised of representatives from the Dali Museum and Eckerd College faculty. Three awards will be given within the student category: a first prize of $300, a second prize of $200, and a third prize of $100. There will be one award of $200 in the alumni category.

All films entered will be shown during the Surreal Festival at the Go Pavilion on Saturday, March 2 at 10 pm. The four winning films will be announced and shown at the Salvador Dali Museum during “Eckerd College Day at the Dali Museum” scheduled for Saturday, March 9, 2013 at 4 pm.
